

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This document is the integration report of the Additional Release (AREL).

The AREL is the seventh milestone of the IT2Rail project and is the release of the Additional functions.

This document describes the test campaign strategy used for the AREL integration to better understand the motivations behind all the test cases.

It then details all the test cases for this campaign.

Finally, it gives the results for the final run of the test campaign.